Verkostnotiz

FALSTAFF: "Dunkles Rubingranat, violette Reflexe, zarte Randaufhellung. Zart nach Cassis und Kirschen, feine tabakige Würze, ein Hauch von Tabak und Kräuter, zarter Anklang von Nougat. Komplex, saftig, feine Brombeerfrucht, frischer Säurebogen, zarte Extraktsüße, mineralisch und gut anhaftend, bereits entwickelt, ein lebendiger Stil, verfügt über Entwicklungspotenzial."

JAMES SUCKLING: "A precise, classic vintage showing depth of fruit, but with beautiful austerity and minerals. Mostly red fruit, with touches of dark cherries and currants. Medium- to full-bodied with very fine-etched tannins and lots of brightness. So long and refined in the finish, showing restraint. 51% cabernet sauvignon, 46.5% merlot and 2.5% cabernet franc."

THE WINE ADVOCATE: "Notes of dark berries, spices, mulberries and discreet hints of new oak preface the 2024 La Mission Haut-Brion, a medium to full-bodied, dense and attractively seamless wine for the vintage, with a textural mid-palate that's underpinned by a firm chassis of tannins, concluding with a long, broad and rather ripe finish. Slightly austere at this stage, it is likely to flesh out with élevage, developing into a structured and serious La Mission with promising aging potential. Like its sibling Haut-Brion, the estate benefited from its intramural location in Pessac, which allowed for more complete ripening in a year that posed greater challenges for some other Pessac-Léognan properties."
